

Richard McCrae

Richard McCrae (he/him) is a Health Educator with the MFL Occupational Health Centre. Richard's background is in human rights and law. He has spent over a decade in Winnipeg facilitating trainings and programs on consent, masculinity, healthy relationships and violence prevention for a wide range of audiences and organizations. Richard brings empathy, passion, and humour to difficult conversations and sensitive topics.