

Lori A Halvorson, AuD

Dr. Lori is a Board Certified Doctor of Audiology, a Mensa Member, MS from Rush, Doctor of Audiology from A T Still University of Health in Arizona. Dr. Halvorson is driven to “help people hear better and brains age younger.” She founded both Lake Forest Hearing Professionals and Sounhaus where she leads her team providing Hearing Safety Preventative Care thru Ear to Brain Hearing Treatment: hearing protection, ear to brain hearing and communication care, hearing aids and hearing treatment including hearing training, auditory processing training, hearing exercise and nutrition, tinnitus treatment and management.

Dr. Lori is truly an ambitious visionary in the audiology world, the official hearing safety partner for Road America Race Track and has traveled world wide with classic team Lotus providing hearing protection and hearing health care trackside. She leads each day with an “indomitable spirit” and her energy and optimism are inspiring. Dr Lori loves educating people hearing safer and easier to make all the sounds you love in life better.

Lori Halvorson, AuD, FAAA
Board Certified Doctor of Audiology
Mensa Member