

Daria M. Pakhomova, CPHR Candidate
Human Resource Director
Simaril Supported Living Inc.

Daria is a seasoned professional with a rich background in Operations, Human Resources, and Training. With extensive experience both internationally, particularly in Russia, and locally, she brings a unique perspective to the table. Daria holds a post-graduate diploma in HR Management from the University of Winnipeg, PACE, along with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Russia.

Throughout her career, Daria has excelled in roles where she was responsible for leading teams of up to 30 individuals and overseeing various functions within organizations. Her journey to the Director level in 2022 is a testament to her dedication and expertise in navigating complex workplace dynamics.

Currently, Daria also shares her knowledge and insights as a part-time instructor at the University of Winnipeg, where she imparts her wisdom on future professionals in the field. Her passion for teaching mirrors her commitment to fostering inclusive and safe workplaces.

Daria's experiences have equipped her with a deep understanding of multicultural environments and the challenges they pose, particularly in ensuring the safety and well-being of all workers while respecting their cultural differences. With her blend of practical experience and academic knowledge, Daria is well-prepared to contribute meaningfully to discussions on multicultural workplaces and safety challenges, offering valuable perspectives and solutions to address these critical issues.